SOCIETY FOLK WILL HELP

ORGANIZATION OF SOCIAL CLUB AT NEW OR LEANS PROCEEDING SATISFACTORILY.

Committee in Charge of Social Side of Racing at Fair Grounds Planning for Several Functions During Season-Manager Murphy on Northern Visit.

New Orleans, December 18.—Work on the club house inclosure at the Fair Grounds race track continues and this long-needed accommodation for the society element will be in readiness for inaugural day. Secretary William Campbell, who has gotten in touch with many prominent local people and enlisted their cordial support, stated that the membership will be large although, at the same time, none except those invited by the membership committee will be permitted to join this select organization. Many social functions will doubtless be given in the club house while the winter meeting is in progress, and the Business Men's Racing Association feels certain that the support accorded the revival of clean racing here by prominent society people will be of invaluable aid in making the meeting a success.

Joseph A. Murphy, who will be manager and presiding Judge, has gone to St. Louis to make final preparations for the introduction of his racing bill at the next session of the Missouri legislature. He will return Monday.

Two hundred and fifty horses, approximately, aronw here for the meeting, and many more are arriving almost daily. Over three hundred horses now racing at Charleston will be shipped here, according to applications for stall room received from there. The track is in such good condition that horses are being breezed three-cighths in 35 over it. A mile was galloped in 1:43 yesterday. "Long Taw" Welter, assistant starter, who came down in advance of A. B. Dade, is schooling the coming thought.

EUROPEAN WAR DEVELOPMENTS.

The people of Berlin were aronsed to enthusiasm by the official announcement of a great Austroferman victory over the Russians in Poland south of the Vistula. Bunting was displayed everywhere. Petrograd admits the loss of 120,000 men in the lighting around Lodz. The first intimation of the nature and extent of the Russian defeat was received at Berlin Wednesday evening and circulated in official quarters, but nothing was known of it generally until the official bulletin was published Thursday. It is known now that thousands of Russians have been taken prisoners. The Lokal Anzeiger, commenting on the news of a German victory in Poland, says: "Never since this old earth las had a history has such a gigantic battle been tory in Poland, says: "Never since this old earth las had a history has such a gigantic battle been fought. Seldom in centuries has there been an event of such decisive importance. The battle of the first rank. It will be mentioned in the same breath with the battle of Salamis and Leipsic." "The Germans are pressing the Russians hard on the river Bzura." says a London Daily Mail dispatch from Petrograd. "The mobility of the German forces gives them a superiority over numbers. They are making the most strenuous efforts towards Warsaw with troops aggregating 750,000 men." "Persistent attacks by great masses of German troops have compelled a regrouping of our army west of Warsaw," says the Russian Army Messenger. "The enemy is suffering heavy losses in his offensive against the Kazumpolski-Teresiu-Skierniewice front, where our artillery is repulsing his massed attacks." This statement by the official organ of the Russian military establishment confirms the German amonucement that the czar's troops have been driven back in Poland.

driven back in Poland.

The German war office gave out an official statement as follows: "The fighting in Nieuport continues favorable, but no decision yet has been reached. The French attacks between La Bassee and Arras and on both sides of the river Somme have resulted in failure, with severe losses to the enemy. On the Somme the French lost 1,200 men in prisoners and at least 1,800 in dead; our own losses were under 200. In the Argonne forest our successful attack resulted in the capture of some 7,500 prisoners in addition to war material. There have been no important developments elsewhere on the western front." The French war office gave out an official communication as follows: The day of Dec. 17 was marked, as we said yesterday, by an advance on our

HORSES THAT WON MORE THAN $25,000 FOR AMOS TURNEY

Owner Amos Turney did not fare as well in the racing of 1914 as he did in that of 1913. Nevertheless, a return of over $25,000 from a band of only ten horses was not doing badly by any means and in Waterbass he enjoyed the pleasure of possessing and racing one of the best three-year-olds of the year. Nothing could be done with his unbeaten star of 1913, Horron, but Kieburne raced fairly well and, without winning a tace, contrived to pick up over $2,000 in place money, something not frequently accomplished. Bolala, Balko and Glint all won usefully. In 1913 the Turney horses won $31,294 and, the two years taken together, were in money won the most successful ever experienced by Mr. Turney as a turfman. The record of the stable for the year was:

part in Belgium, where every counter attack undertaken by the enemy failed. In the region of Arras a vigorous offensive made us masters of several trenches. These are located at Auchy, La Bassee, St. Laurent and Blangy. At the last mentioned place we occupied a front more than one kilometer long, almost all the first line trenches of the enemy. In the region of Tracy-le-Val, on the Aisne, and in Champagne our heavy artillery won distinct advantages. In the Argonne the Germans blew up one of our trenches to the north of Four de Paris and endeavored to move out from their position with three battalions of troops. This infantry attack, as well as the one they undertook at St. Hubert, was repulsed. To the east of the Meuse and in the Vosges there is nothing to report."

A short, fierce battle was fought in the fog off the Yorkshire coast between a mosquito fleet of British light cruisers and destroyers and the powerful squadron of the German fleet which was fleeing from the wrecked clites of Hartlepool, Scarborough, and Whitby. Some of the English ships were damaged and their wounded have been landed. No official information of the extent of the casualties has been given out at Loudon. An official dispatch from Berlin says that during the sea fight following the raid on the British coast the German cruisersank two British destroyers and that others were badly damaged. On his arrival at Rome Prince von Bulow, the former imperial German chancelor, and now ambassador to Italy, was informed of the bonardment of the English coast by German ships, but showed no surprise. He said this achievement had been arranged for prior to his departure from Berlin, and added: "This is simply the prelude to what the German feet is soon to undertake, which may astonish the world." It is officially reported at Berlin that the German vessels which bombarded Hartlepool, Scarborough, and Whitby were hit several times by the coast batteries, but that the damage was slight.

The German cruisers sent to the bottom off the Falkland islands on Dec, 8 were taken unawares by the British at a time when neither side was expecting an encounter. It was a formidable British squadron which faced the Germans. Included in it were the battleship Canopus, the battle cruisers anvincible and Inflexible, and the cruisers Kent. Cornwall, Carnarvon, Bristol and Glasgow. It far outmatched in strength the German squadron, consisting of the five cruisers Scharnhorst, Gnelsenau, Leipzig, Nurnberg, and Dresden. After the battle British picked up 194 Germans, including a few officers. Of these survivors 100 were from the crews of the two German colliers. An opportunity to surrender was offered the colliers, but it was refused and they were sunk. The cruiser Cornwall was damaged slightly below the water line. None of the other British warships was damaged. On Dec. 10 funeral services were held for the eight British sailors who were killed, in the presence of the commanders and crews of the squadron.

The London Daily Chronicle's Dover correspondent says the allies advanced to Ostend after the shelis of the allied warships made the German position there untenable. Long range fighting in Belgiam has been replaced by hand to hand conflicts. Bayonet charges on the part of the allies are numerous the Germans back. That the fighting is severe is indicated by the number of wounded reaching the hospitals of both the German and the allies. Correspondents report that the hospitals are again filling up, while along the Dutch border continuous firing can be heard. The German and French official communications do not disclose much of what is going on, but it is known that the allies are still on the offensive from the coast to La Bassee and at various other points along the front.

An official Vienna announcement says the Russians are retreating along the entire front in Galicia and Poland. Another official communication says: "The latest news permits of no further doubt that the resistance of the Russian main force has been shattered. After the defeat of the southern wing in the battle of Limanovo, which lasted several days, our allies also gained a victory near Lodz. The Russians are now completely routed on the river Baura. Threatened by our advance across the Carpathians from the south, the enemy began a general retreat which they are trying to cover by stubborn fighting in the regions before the Carpathians. Our troops are attacking on the line of Grodno-Zakliczyu. Along the other parts of the front the pursuit has begun. There will be a number of empty seats in both houses when the French parliament meets on Dec. 2. Those of Senator Emile Raymond and Deputies Pierre Gougon. The long expected proclamation bringing an end to Turkish suzerainty over Egypt and the establishment of a British protectorate over that country was officially issued at London. Peaceful solution of the Naco trouble, in which five persons have been killed and forty-seven wounded on the American side, now depends upon the success of Brig. Gen. Hugh L. Scott's personal influence upon the two Mexican commanders. Gov. Maytorena, whose Villa troops for ten weeks have besieged the town of Naco, Sonora, where Gen. Hill, with his Carranza force, is intrenched, is determined to continue the siege, according to the best information of United States army officials here. Mr. Wilson also tried to buy from William Waliace the yearling bay colt by Duke of Ormonde—Gold Lace, which was responsible for nis purchase of the stallion, but he failed. Mr. Waliace wanted $10,000 for the colt. He recently refused Walter O. Parmer's $6,000 for him and was not tempted today by a proffer of $7,500. Wallace bought the colt for $900 at the Macdonough dispersal sale at Sheepshead Bay last September and les showed a quarter at Latonia in better than 23. At the same sale Mr. Wilson bought Gold Lace for $150. He now is satisfied that he has the sire and the dam of one of the greatest colts in the state. Wallace is said to have offered to race this colt against any one in T. C. McDowell's barn, the winner to take both.

HALTER MEN ARE ACTIVE

THREE HORSES CHANGE HANDS FOLLOWING RACES AT PALMETTO PARK.

Verena and Dakota Are Bid Up and Sold After Winning Their Respective Races and J. B. Harrell Is Claimed When He Is Beaten.

Charleston, S. C., December 18.—Well backed horses swept the card at Palmetto Park this afternoon. It was ladies' day and the attendance was by far the largest of the week. The card was in the main made up of selling races at sprinting distances and small margins separated the first two in a majority of instances. The haltermen were in the limelight and three horses changed hands during the afternoon, one by the claiming process and the other two by being bid up after they won.

The largest run-up of the meeting came after Verena took the fourth race, a dash of a mile and three-sixteenths. Verena had started several times here and proved a keen disappointment. He was in a running mood this afternoon and taking the lead soon after the start was never headed, winning under wraps at the finish from J. W. Hedrick's Napier. The mile and three-sixteenths was run in 2:01½ or two seconds faster than the record made by Dr. Waldo Briggs here last winter. The conditions of this race made it a $300 top and bottom affair, and when bids were called for J. W. Hedrick, whose Napier finished second, carried him up to $800 and then requested that the horse's bandages be removed before bidding further. The request was granted by the officials and C. C. Campbell, agent for M. A. Colton, advanced the horse to $1,200 and secured him at the latter figure. The other winner that was boosted was Dakota, winner of the third race. He was bid up from $300 to $500 and sold to John Powers.

race. He was bid up from $300 to $500 and sold to John Powers.

Dakota had to be hard ridden to shake off the opposition in his race and he beat Miss Brush by only a small margin. Hearthstone attempted to make a runaway affair of the race but quit after drawing into an easy lead in the early stages.

Two claims were put in for J. B. Harrell after he finished second to Pierrot in the second race. R. E. Watkins, whose Mrs. Campbell finished third, and J. W. Hedrick were the claimants and in the drawing Mr. Hedrick secured him. Pierrot showed keen speed in this race. He held command at all stages and won with a bit to spare. J. B. Harrell might have been closer up had he not swerved over to the furlong post.

Jockey Robinson, who was injured a couple of days ago as a result of a fall, is progressing nicely and will be up and about again shortly.

MORE OF THE LATE J. G. FOLLANSBEE.

in Broadway, New York, and was attended not only by those with which he became intimate with through racing, but by many prominent persons in other spheres of life who claimed friendship with him.

Particulars of his career in addition to what Daily Racing Form has already published, are furnished in an article written for the New York Telegraph by Harry M. Williams, herewith reproduced:

"In the death of John G. Follansbee the American turf lost one of its most delightful characters and there passed a man who in a long and useful life played his part with an upright courage that will long be remembered. Ranchman, scout, soldier and scholar, there was not a line of endeavor in which he did not succeed, and his memory will ever be green with all who had the good fortune to know him.

"John Follansbee was born in California, on October 3, 1861, and after a boyhood in the Far West he finished his schooling at Harvard, from which college he was graduated in 1886. From earliest childhood a life in the open made him a physical giant among his fellows, and he was a valued member of the varsity eleven in his last year of college. "At the conclusion of his college career he returned to the West where, in the employ of the late James Ben Ali Haggin, he became a California ranchman in Lower California and Mexico, in the days when the ranchman had to be a cowboy as well, Later he was associated with the late Hon. George Hearst, then a member of the United States Senate, and through this connection he became interested in Mexican mining and ranching.

"He was a courier with General Miles and General Crook in the campaign against Geronimo, and it was largely through his knowledge of the country and his courage and ability that a capture was finally effected. At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war he was a volunteer and he saw service in Cuba, where he was distinguished for his bravery.

vice in Cuba, where he was distinguished for his bravery.

"A charter member of the Jockey Club, he owned and raced many a good horse and no sliks were more popular than his his "crimson and black stripes." Among the good horses that raced under these sliks were Gloaming, Roehampton, Cameron, Alumada, Astarita, Moon Dalsy, Keynote, Dalsy Green and others. It was Astarita that won the first running of the Astoria Stakes. Alumada won a Carter Handicap, and Gloaming was off the time of Lamplighter and of like quality.

"Mr. Follansbee always took the liveliest interest in racing, and was at one time a steward of the National Steeplehase and Hunt Association. While not a steward of the Jockey Club he frequently held the proxies of absent members and for a considerable time filled the chair of John Sandford, during that gentleman's absence abroad. He was a member of the Union, Brook and Manhattan clubs and at the time of his death president of the Juarez Jockey Club, in which he was a considerable stock-holder.

"He was a nephew of the late James R. Keene

PEDIGREE WAS NOT MATERIAL.

The High Court at Perth, West Australia, has given an interesting decision in a case involving the insurance of $2.125 on a race horse which was killed in shipment from Sydney to Freemantle. The policy described the animal as by Marshal Soult out of a St. Paul mare. The company refused to pay on the ground that the horse's breeding was not as described in the policy. At the first trial Chief Justice McMillan gave a verdict for Campbell, holding that the pedigree was merely descriptive material, as the animal was incontestably worth what it was insured for. On appeal the full court reversed this decision on the ground that the policy warranted the truth of all the statements in the policy. The owner then carried the appeal to the High Court, which reversed the full court's decision, and restored the original judgment with costs against the insurance company.
